Juan, "El Indio"

We introduce you to Juan Manuel, the Ancestral Elder of our family. "El Indio," as he is known, is a servant of the ancestral traditions of Anáhuak. Born and raised on the slopes of Iztaccihuatl, "the sleeping woman," Juan has dedicated his life to learning and teaching the worldview of our ancient peoples. He is a warrior of the red path and a humble servant of great wisdom. He is an ancestral "grandfather." Juan is a light being, an intuitive empath with great wisdom and works with energy. He has officiated hundreds of ceremonies and rituals in various countries and in many Mexican states. He is a temazcalero and a carrier of sacred medicines. El Indio will create a unique energy for your event with an unforgettable mysticism, authenticity, and magic.

Nuestros Guerreros

We are an indigenous family of humble servants of this beautiful culture that marks our common identity. We do what we do out of passion for our ancient culture. Our family of warriors will bring magic and spirituality to all present.

Our packages are organized by the number of participants on our part and if music and dance are included, whether for a wedding, birthday, love ritual, or other celebration. It does not matter the number of guests

Talmanalli or Altar

All our packages include an altar or talmanalli. An altar is an offering that is designed with the purpose of asking permission from the four cardinal directions, to represent the cosmos and the universe in the place of the ceremony. The four elements that are part of all creation are also represented: water, wind, fire and earth. It is also an offering of thank Mother Earth and is designed with organic elements such as fruits, flowers, seeds and other offerings. None is the same. They are all unique. Handcrafted and designed with the energy of the celebrated in mind.

The altar is fundamental in all ancestral ceremonies. It is the scene of love and energy. The elements are the conductors that connect us to the universe. The more elaborate the package, the more elaborate the altar will be.

PACKAGES OF CEREMONIES

** These packages apply to all ceremonies, whether weddings, rituals, birthdays, name sowing, or other celebration

Package 1: Celebrant, Medicine Woman, Eagle Warrior, and Altar: $650 USD

It includes the Celebrant, "El Indio", a medicine woman, an eagle warrior, and an altar. The love that vibrates between two people is all it takes to elevate your essence and your presence and present it to the cosmos. In this package, El Indio will officiate your ceremony or ritual, will present you to the four cardinal points as practiced in the ancestral traditions of these sacred lands, and will seal your commitment to the cosmos with the universe as a witness.

The medicine woman receives the bride and groom or the celebrated with the sacred copal before entering the sacred circle of the ceremony. El Indio then shares a brief explanation about the meaning of spiritual unions or ritual to celebrate in our tradition, while subtly moving the energies present to vibrate at a single rhythm.

Vows are exchanged, rings are blessed, and the bride and groom are invited to exchange seeds that represent abundance, fertility and prosperity. In the case of another celebration, the ceremony is individualized. For example, in a name sowing, the name is presented and planted to all four directions.

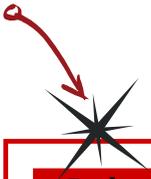

The seeds are then offered to earth and water to seal the union, name sowing, baptism, or birthday. The ceremony ends with a shower of petals, which represent the blessing of the union and harmony. It is a beautiful, loving, elegant and spiritual ceremony.

The Eagle Warrior watches over the energy and security of all those present. The sound of the venerable drum, and the wind instruments add a mystical, spiritual and authentic energy that takes you back to Ancestral Mexico.

The couple or those celebrated are introduced to the four elements, water, earth, wind, and fire, so that they are recognized by them from that moment on.

Duration: 45 minutes

Package 2: Celebrant, Altar, 2 Medicine Women, and 3 Eagle Warriors (Includes music and a cosmic dance)** (Favorite of the Majority!)
**$350 USD

Includes everything described in Package 1, with the addition of 2 musicians, another Eagle Warrior, and two Medicine Women. This package includes two ancient cosmic dances at the end of the ceremony. As is the custom in all important ancestral ceremonies, at the conclusion of the ceremony we express our gratitude to the universe with a dance. In our traditions, dance is a prayer in motion; We pray and give thanks for those celebrated, their union, the sowing, or the return to the sun, and to Mother Earth for allowing us to do the ceremony.

A dance elevates the energy, and the ancient music adds a mysticism and magic that is felt with all the senses. This package is the favorite of our clients for the unmatched harmony, joy and celebration that caresses the hearts of all those present.

Package 3: Celebrant, 4 Medicine Women, 4 Eagle Warriors and Musicians: Ancestral Music Concert, and 3 Cosmic Dances $1,200 USD

It includes everything described in packages 1 and 2, and we turn the ceremony into a spectacular celebration of all the aspects that make our ancient culture shine. With a cast of 10 warriors, we begin the ceremony with 30 minutes of Ancestral music, including songs, playing drums, flutes, ocarinas, conches and tunkules, creating a vibration that elevates energies in a way that moves the souls of all present.

At the end of each introduction to the cardinal points, Ancestral music transports us to ancient times and the energy vibrates with each beat of the drum and the sound of the flutes.

A medicine woman in each cardinal direction watches over the love of the couple and the mysticism and the glory of an ancestral ceremony shines with all its splendor.

Three cosmic dances at the end of the ceremony envelop everyone present in ancient magic.
