The run down

Welcome! I'm so excited you are interested in a Boudoir experience!

The Boudoir experience is a 4 our photoshoot experience. The experience includes a ton of stuff! It includes a pre-shoot consultation, wardrobe and styling advice, professional hair and make up from our Glam Squad, Professional image retouching, the time and expertise of the photographer and everything you need for the perfect boudoir experience. From your first inquiry to your fine art delivery, our goal is to create an unforgettable experience that empowers who you are.

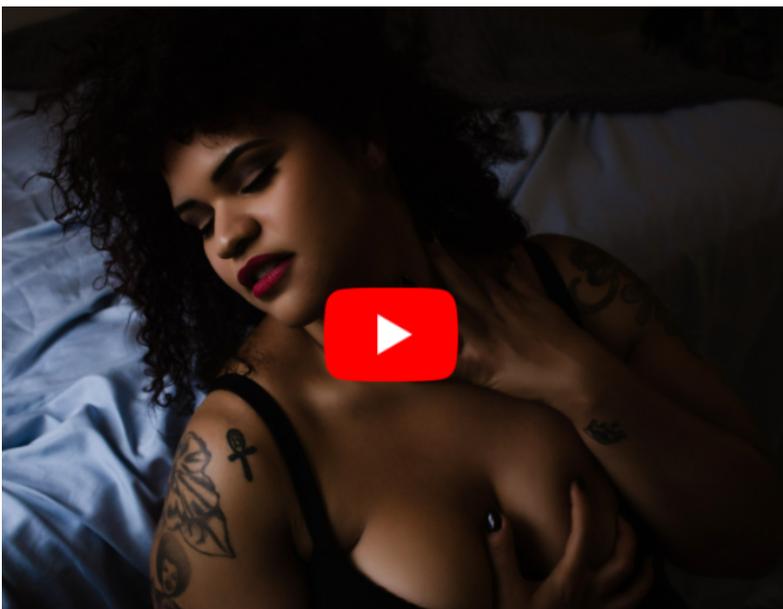

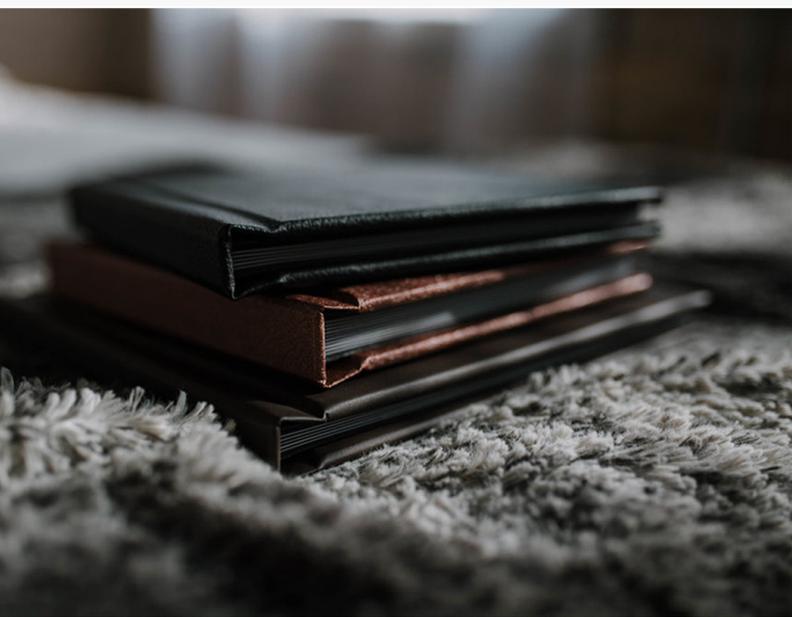

We also offer Outdoor, Bridal, Male and Couples Boudoir Sessions.

To book your Boudoir Experience, a $495 non-refundable session fee is required to secure your session date. Images and products are sold separately and not included in the session fee.

Our products are the perfect way to show off your individual beauty and remind yourself every day how amazing you are and your experience was! Our luxury, hand selected boudoir products can be purchased via a la carte or via a collection. Clients adore our collection options as it's a way to save money and have everything they love in one package!

On average our clients spend around $2,400-$3,800 this is including the experience and luxury fine art products.

We offer flexible payment plan options so that any and everyone can afford all the images and artwork she loves and we do not require a minimum purchase.

Frequently Asked Questions

What are the payment options regarding the purchasing of my images?

Every client is offered a Pre-Session Payment Plan that can start as early as the day they book their session and can extend until the week prior to their session. We also provide our clients with Bonuses valued at up to $600 if they Pre-Purchase a Collection. Should you decline to set up a payment plan or pre-purchase a collection, you will simply come to your Image Reveal & Ordering Appointment following your Boudoir Session and pay in full for your purchase.

Can I get a payment plan after the Image Reveal & Ordering Appointment?

No, we do not offer payment plans after the Boudoir Session or after the Image Reveal & Ordering Appointment. Payment plans are only available between the date of booking and the session date.

What is a Pre-Session Payment Plan?

For clients who wish to discuss setting up a payment plan, we offer a payment plan phone call. Basically, how it works, is we either select a Collection or work within your budget and create a payment plan from that monetary amount. For instance, If there are 12 weeks before your session, you could choose to have your payment plan be automatically drafted weekly, bi-weekly, or monthly for a set amount so that when your session date arrives, your order is paid in full. Payment plans are offered on amounts of $1500 or higher only. Pre-Session Payment Plans are not refundable if you cancel your session or if you choose to spend less than the amount you financed.

Frequently Asked Questions

What are type of payment do you accept?

We accept cash, credit/debit. We do NOT accept checks.

Can I make additional purchases at a later date?

As discussed in the Session Guide, we do not archive your images after your ordering appointment and no option to have an online gallery or a second Ordering Appointment. Therefore, you will not be able to return and order additional images. However, if you purchase the Digital Collection with the high-resolution files, you can send them to us for printing or you may print them through a third-party with print release.

What happens to the images I do not purchase?

We delete them after your Image Reveal & Ordering Appointment.

All sales are final. Once your Image Reveal & Ordering Appointment are complete, we will have you fill out a Final Sale agreement, which states that we cannot allow for changes to your order. This is studio policy for all clients and no exceptions will be made. You may not change, alter, add, reduce, or request any other types of changes after the Ordering Appointment.
