

WeddingChaplain.com Services and Price List

As you begin planning for your special day, it is our job as your minister to make sure your ceremony is both a memorable event and something that reflects you both as a couple. We serve both as listeners and guides. We create a service that reflects your desires, choices, values, and beliefs. We will also guide you as a resource drawing on our experiences with past couples. In addition to officiating ceremonies, we also offer counseling services for the pre-marital couple, the married couple, and the struggling couple.

Our fee for wedding officiant services is $550. That includes 2 premarital sessions, the rehearsal, and the ceremony itself. Each meeting is about 90 minutes. In each session we will go through the ceremony section by section, and we will do premarital counseling “lite.”

Each meeting will be by phone or Zoom, at a Starbucks or Panera (somewhere convenient and casual), or at the Minister’s church office.

Our in-depth Premarital Counseling utilizes an approach called SYMBIS. SYMBIS stands for Saving Your Marriage Before It Starts.

This is not required, but it is available to you if you wanted to explore it. If SYMBIS is added on to a basic wedding package, the cost is $125.

If SYMBIS is done as a stand along counseling approach, the cost is $300. This would be for couples only seeking premarital counseling or for couples who are already married.
