Meet Your Photographer

Hi, I am Jessica Puhr.

Thank you for reaching out to this cold brew coffee addicted wedding photographer. Photography is more than a career for me, it is a passion that I am happy to share with you.

Photos are a great way to tell your story. The best part is being able to capture a moment that you will cherish for a lifetime. I like to describe my style as “warm” & “true to life”. I strive to get a mix of candid photos & relaxed but posed photos on your wedding day. I also make sure we capture all of the details that you have included in your special day.

I love creating relationships with clients. This is not just a business to me; this is a way to love others & to create friendships. If you ever want to meet & sit down for coffee, let's do it. I want you to be comfortable with such an intimate moment in your life.

Outside of photography, I enjoy exploring the Kansas City area with my family. We love to go to the River Market & try new breweries & support other local businesses. My husband & I both grew up in the area & love to call KC our home. You might catch a glimpse of my husband at your wedding as he often second shoots for me!

While I am editing photos, you can find me listening to podcasts or to artists like Zach Bryan & Morgan Wade.

I can't wait to create memories with you,

Jessica
