All photos are uploaded on a private online album, and burned on a high resolution DVD archive for the highest quality images. Prints are separate. All prices are base prices and are subject to added fees if the event is held 30 miles or more of the photographers dwelling, if other transportation (airplane, ferry, boat, train) are needed, or if there is a need to purchase lodging for the night of the event. A free consultation is given for all clients to go over the photo needs and the contract details. A 20% booking fee is required the day of the contract signing. A second consultation is given 2-4 weeks before the event to go over any final details and to confirm the schedule for the day.
