Weddings

Congrats on your engagement!!

There's so many choices for wedding photographers, and we'd like to think it's a personal decision and relationship that goes into choosing your wedding photographer.

Since I can't build a relationship with you over email, I will encourage you to come to the studio, have a snack or cup of tea. See our wedding products and feel their quality. Talk about your wedding day details and make sure we are a good fit for each other.

Our wedding coverage starts at $1950 for 6 hours of coverage including all of your digital images. We will quote you a package based on your specific needs for your big day.

You can book that appointment now by texting or calling 267-391-0079, or emailing contact@brookestraiton.com.
