Who is Normscar?

Normscar is a video production company based in Peoria Arizona, but the name came from a true love story of two dogs, Norman and Scarlett who helped bring their owners together at a local dog park. Owners Sean and Gina fell in love and married in 2013. Later that year Normscar was born due to Sean's newly discovered love for capturing others' Love Story. Normscar was created and the rest of the love story is forever being captured through video.

Why choose Normscar?

Normscar's passion is to capture the true emotion of a couples Love Story, for them to walk away with something that will help them remember their favorite moments for the rest of their lives. We pride ourselves in giving quality product for a respectable rate.
