JEWELRY THAT NEVER FORGETS

THE IMMORTALIZED MEMORY

Memories that last forever.

The hidden technology and with it the photo memory turns a remarkable necklace into a priceless piece that carries your most personal memory - experiential jewelry.

The concept of interchangeable gemstones allows you to choose from or collect multiple designs and memories. It's your decision if you want to keep the immortalized memory for yourself or if you want to share it with the people you love.

The combination of tech and classic jewelry enables you to immortalize, gift, and collect special memories that should not be forgotten.
