About Our Team

Your life's events should be a mirror of you... a reflection of what you believe is important. Good professionals are able to take your individual dreams and visions and interpret them into each element of your special day. They should be able to make your dreams a reality with good critical thinking skills and skillful interpretation of your vision in a way that respects graciousness, your personality, and your budget. Darlene, Reggie and the Cake Professor team achieve this with their clients each day.

Our goal is to make sure your cake compliments your décor, theme, or other elements of your day. A one-on-one consultation is available to discuss your event and plan your dream cake.
