with three separate sessions, your wedding experience will be fully documented! you get me AND my second shooter behind the scenes ALL DAY with this package. the largest engagement session that I offer is included in this package as well.

the final session is totally flexible. your options are:

- * a bridal session which speeds up your wedding day schedule since your portraits and many of the detail shots are taken care of here + (this is also a PERFECT time to do the test run for your wedding day hair and make-up)
- * a boudoir session which includes multiple outfits & makes a perfect wedding day gift for your hubby!
- * a "day after" session which is great if you know you want to keep portraits short & sweet so you can get to your reception quickly. (it doesn't literally have to be the day after, but it does give you an excuse to get all dressed up again after the honeymoon, and really soak up the time together!)
- * a first anniversary session. this can be at your venue or another location. it's a nice little surprise to know you have that gift waiting on you to celebrate your first year of marriage!

if you have put that extra level of thought, effort, and investment into your wedding day, i highly recommend going with this package. this allows the most flexibility, most photos delivered, and a fully documented experience!
