JACK LOONEY
PHOTOGRAPHY

At Jack Looney Photography, we believe that the client should have and enjoy all the images from their special day, without the obligation to purchase album and print packages.

- Jack Looney Photography specializes in photojournalistic wedding coverage.
- We offer our wedding services at a flat rate fee of $4400*. This price includes:
    - ❖ Up to six hours of coverage
    - ❖ Approximately 150 images per hour of coverage, delivered to clients in digital format, usually within 3 weeks
    - ❖ Travel within an hour of Charlottesville
    - ❖ The services of Jack and a second professional photographer to capture any or all events of the day
    - ❖ One set of high-quality 4x6 prints of 400-500 of our favorite images
    - ❖ An online gallery of all images for viewing by friends and family
- Additional wedding-day coverage is available at $300 per hour.
- Additional products, such as album and print packages, are available upon request for an additional fee.
- Additional services, such as pre-wedding portrait sessions, rehearsal dinner coverage, and other special requests are also available.
- We are client-focused and are committed to fulfilling any special requests you have, no matter how large or small.
- All of our photographers are experienced professionals, using high-end digital cameras and lenses. We strive to capture spontaneous, candid moments. We believe that you should enjoy your wedding day without frequent interruption by our photographers for formal portraits and groupings.
- Jack is a full-time professional photographer and a member of the National Press Photographer's Association, Wedding and Portrait Photographers International, and Canon's Professional Services team. He has developed his distinctive style through freelance work as varied as catalog photography, architectural shoots, and newspaper and magazine photography.
