

STEWART SMITH WEDDING PHOTOGRAPHY

Thank you for your interest in
Stewart Smith Photography.

It would be my honor to photograph your special day.

Your wedding is one of the most important events you will ever experience, and the memories you create right now will last you and your loved ones a lifetime.

Cherish these priceless moments, and savor them forever, by having me capture the heartfelt beauty of your wonderful day.

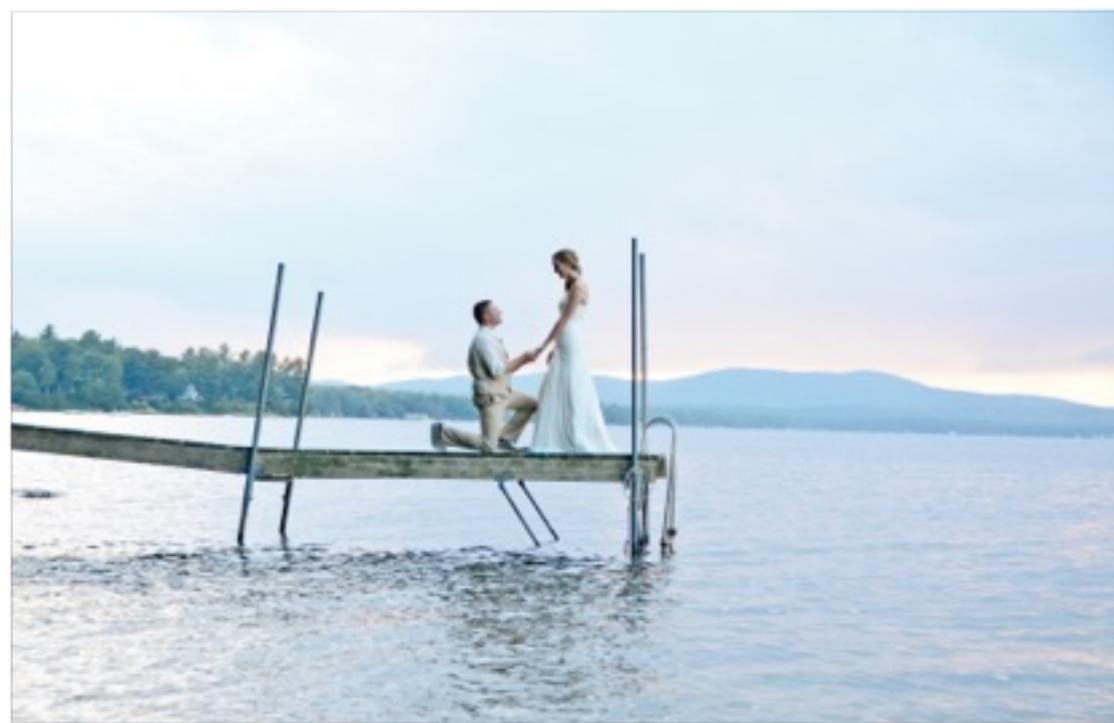

I have plenty of references if requested.

My mission is to provide my clients with captivating photographs which tell the story about their love and commitment, joy and anticipation, and celebration of their union. I do so using my photojournalistic style and keen sense of detail, and through lightly posed and artistic portraiture. My professional yet easygoing personality, positive attitude, and sense of humor put my clients at ease on one of the most important days of their lives.

I can help you plan your wedding with some other professionals I work with in the industry such as DJ's, Hair/Makeup artists, Videographers, Reception Sites, Bands and Florists.
