Band Description: Tellico is a fine product of Asheville NC's thriving roots music scene, its members well schooled in bluegrass but with an unbridled organic sound. Known for their rootsy, authentic singing, as well as the nostalgic yet modern themes of their songwriting, Tellico combines some of the finest voices, songs and instrumental prowess in western North Carolina and beyond. Their sound perfectly complements the mountain setting of area events while still appealing to a wide audience and varying musical tastes.
