

Hello there,

For brides and grooms to be out there, this has been a devastating year for you. Over the last months I have had numerous conversations about the uncertainty and disappointment of having to either cancel or postpone their big day. I have also had many conversations with couples who have made peace with the current situation, and have come up with alternatives.

One very popular alternative is to have an old fashioned back yard wedding. Did you know... There are companies that will organize your backyard wedding for you.

Gathering friends and family is still possible, and we are here to help by transporting your guests from a nearby location to your event. That way you don't have to worry about where your guests will park.

Others are having a small church ceremony, going to a restaurant after with close family and friends, and scheduling their big reception for 2021.

A third alternative is to reschedule the entire wedding for next year. We are currently booking for 2021, and dates are filling up fast. Please contact us soon to reserve your date.

*Keep in mind, there are couples that were already scheduled to get married in 2021.

Either way, we will ensure all you're your needs are met to make your day spectacular.
