LIVELY — LOVELY
INSPIRED WEDDING PHOTOGRAPHY

Planning
a wedding has a lot of moving parts!

...Which is why I'm going to be your partner beyond just taking photos.

My couples lean on me to help craft the vision of their day, most importantly, in helping pull together a timeline that makes the most of your day together and prioritizes spending time with your guests and loved ones. Let's work together to make this the best party ever--your way.

After booking, I'll send along a 50+ page Guide with some pretty photos so you can get thinking about how you want things to flow and see some examples!

FAQ

Do I need Extra Second Shooter Coverage?

More Second Shooter time means more photos of your guests. If you have over 120 Guests, different locations on your day or a lot of Reception events planned, I recommend having additional coverage and potentially going with the FULL package.

How Many Photos Should I Expect?

I typically deliver 80-100 photos per hour. So that means if you have an 8 hour Wedding, you can expect anywhere from 800-1000+ photos.

What are Color & Light Edits?

I'm going to edit up your photos to reflect the lovely, natural and colorful YOU! If you like what you're seeing on my site, you are going to LOVE your photos. I hand edit and select each photo so that it's as bright and colorful as your day. For the photo savvy, that means I'm hand editing for Exposure, White Balance and Color Tone.

Do We Need An Engagement Session?

I highly recommend them so that you can get a little "practice" if you are nervous about being in front of the camera and so we can get to know each other better. This is a great way for you guys to get some fun photos and for us to built that trust before the Big Day comes around!

About Me

Here's the thing--when you prioritize having fun on your day, you can see it in your photos. No fake laughs, no awkward posing, just movement and cuddling and hanging out together.

I'm about guiding you through portraits so that instead of feeling self-conscious taking photos, you are actually just in the moment having fun together..

I'm about planning your timeline so we can get you to your Cocktail Hour.

I'm about efficient family photos--having a plan going in and using my Production Manager skills to wrangle.

I'm about saying "hmm maybe not" or "hell yes!" to stepping away from your reception for sunset photos based on whatever you feel like in the moment.

If you want stunning, lively and colorful photos that show what a great time you're having while you focus on the party, I'm there!

What's Next?

Now you know the baseline, let's talk details! Next steps are to message me back and let me know what package you're most interested in as well as any add ons you'd like to have.

After that we'll set aside a time for a Consultation where we will get to know each other and work on a gameplan based on your wedding. I will walk you through a typical timeline--my process from start to finish and some recommended tips after you guys tell me all about YOU!
