Meet Kenedie

THANK YOU FOR YOUR INTEREST!
I'M KENEDIE MCADAMS, DESIGNER AND OWNER OF LOVE, KENEDIE. I'M A FULL TIME MONTREPRENEUR AND I HAVE BEEN A STATIONER FOR OVER FIVE YEARS. MY STYLE IS A CLASSIC WITH A TOUCH
OF MODERN FEMININITY. I LOVE WORKING WITH COUPLES TO MAKE THEIR VISION COME TO LIFE AND SET THE TONE FOR THEIR WEDDING!

SO HOW MUCH DO INVITATIONS COST?

well...it depends.

The sky is the limit when it comes to wedding invitations. You can have simple invitations digitally printed with a pretty design, all the way to elaborate invitations hand delivered in a box that's not even printed on paper! The cost of invitations, in large part, depends on you, but there are some key factors that determine price. They are:

Print Method
Paper Choice
Number of Pieces
Design

The factor that can affect the price the most is print method.

LK FAVORITE PRINT METHODS

DIGITAL INK

This is the most affordable and common print method. Regular ink is printed on your paper. With this method, you can use photos and other images because there aren't any color restrictions.

There are also options for white digital ink, which looks great on dark paper.

-starting at $675 for 100 suites

LETTERPRESS

Letterpress is a classic print method in which ink is pressed into the paper, typically using vintage machines. A custom plate must be created for each design and each color. For this reason, the more colors you add, the more the price increases. You can't print images with letterpress, but it is beautiful for invitations with a focus on typography (fonts).

This is my personal favorite print method!

-starting at $1000 for 100 suites

FOIL STAMPING

Foil stamping is very similar to letterpress in that a custom plate is used. Foil is stamped into the paper with a hot press. There is a variety of foil colors although gold and silver are the most popular. Foil stamping is a little more than letterpress because the copper plates used for the hot press and metallic foil cost a bit more than those used to letterpress.

-starting at $1250 for 100 suites
