Every couple deserves the ceremony of their dreams.

I have a big warm heart, infinite creativity and I am passionate about celebrating your unique ceremony.

I serve all people of all faiths, traditions and orientations.

Every couple has their own vision and when I express this in their ceremony is an artistic and loving endeavor .

The ceremony is the cornerstone of your marriage and should reflect who you are, your unique relationship and include those who you love. My process starts with a phone call, a meeting or FaceTime, fun homework and lots of communication as we get closer to your date.

My husband works with me and is ordained to do ceremonies when clients request a male officiant. I write every ceremony.

We feel grateful to officiate weddings all over the state of Colorado, the United States and abroad.
