

Rabbi Ziona Zelazo -- List of my services -- 2018

I bring years of seminary training into my work with couples, and often spend considerable time preparing the wedding ceremony according to the specific needs of each couple. My fee ranges from $950 to $1200, depending on the size of wedding, location, crafting the right service to the desires of the couple, and consultations.

** I offer a 15% discount for couples that book with me within 2 weeks of inquiry.

** Budget consideration and adjustments can be provided.

Here is what I include in my work with the couple. Together we modify if so desired.

An introductory meeting prior to booking
At least 3 pre-marital counseling
Unlimited email and phone consultations
Ceremony crafted and created according to the input and according to the Jewish tradition. I make sure that the couple, their families and guests feel cared for and acknowledged at your wedding.
Help you find the right Ketubah, be in touch with the Ketubah company, read proof it, and approving it. This includes read proofing the part in Hebrew as well.
The Ketubah signing [and the Bodeken, if you desire it].
The civil marriage document - signing, and mailing it the next day.
For interfaith couples I craft a unique service which blends in both traditions.

Extra fees are charged -

For travel time
All related travel costs between my home and your venue destination. Tolls and miles.	For 2018, the standard mileage reimbursement rate is 54.5 cents per business mile driven.
Rehearsal	$150