

Kindred Soul

PHOTOGRAPHY MAGAZINE

hey there! i'm Amber.

I LOVE, LOVE.

If you're looking for a photographer who will..

- Gush about how gorgeous your wedding decor is
 - Shout for joy at your session after the perfect shot
 - Belt out crazy songs on the way to your reception
- ... Then you've found the right girl! I am absolutely obsessed with what I do, and it's all because my clients are TRULY the best people!

Photography is more to me than just a photograph. It's about capturing moments in time- an engagement, a happy family, a perfect wedding day. It's about emotions, and being able to relive those moments again and again. Whether it's happiness, sadness, love, longing- the most amazing thing a photographer can ever do is show you an image that make you FEEL. I want that for you.

YOU HAVE A STORY TO TELL, LET ME HELP YOU TELL IT

My passion lies in capturing your stories and creating heirlooms for you to give to your grandchildren someday. I want to document all of the details, the joy, and the raw emotions of your life. You have a story to tell; a story about you, the love you share, and how it resonates with those close to you. Let me help you write the first chapter of the rest of your life.
