New Bride Launch Package

For the newly engaged couple who needs help just getting started planning their wedding. You just found yourself engaged and don't know quite where to start. This package includes a 2-hour consultation to launch you on your way to planning your dream wedding with great vendor suggestions, theme exploration, ceremony ideas, reception options, ideas to personalize your wedding and a checklist to get you started and so much more.

Bridal Consultation Package

A 2-hour consultation on your wedding and reception. You have most things planned but now you need advice and help pulling it all together. This is a client directed consultation where we can help with whatever you need help with – your timeline for the day, venue layout to make sure everything flows, rental questions, etiquette advice, checklists needed, or help with some unique ideas for your ceremony and reception.

Month Of Wedding Coordinator

Let us help make your day a day to remember! This package includes four planning consultations, creating a timeline, helping with venue layout, contacting all wedding vendors to confirm, coordinating and directing the wedding rehearsal. On the day of the wedding, I will meet and direct all vendors, coordinate and assist with setup and decorating, assist guests and wedding party as needed, direct processions, cue wedding party to essential components of reception, take care of all the little details and problems that arise so the Bride, Groom, and family can just enjoy their day. There is an additional fee for larger weddings and for split locations (wedding and reception in different locations) to hire an assistant to guarantee the best service. Initial consultation is free! Call for an appointment to discuss your vision for your day. Decorating and setup outside of wedding day are also available with hourly rates.

Partial Wedding Coordinator

Our most popular option! You want to plan your own wedding but could really use an experienced professional to help with staying on track, making all the decisions, and then help on the day of the wedding. In this package, after our initial consultation, we set another meeting where we go over vendor selection, decorating ideas and themes, and to-do lists to get you started down the path to your dream wedding. I will send out to-do lists along the way to make sure you are staying on track while taking email and phone calls whenever you have a question or concern. A month before the wedding, we meet weekly to go over every detail. We visit the venue to discuss decorations and to create a perfect layout and flow to your wedding. Timelines will be created for you and all your vendors. I will direct your rehearsal and then be there from the time your venue opens to direct the decorating, vendors, and setup. From there I coordinate and direct the flow of your entire wedding and reception from entrance to send off so you and your family can just relax and enjoy this very special day. Decorating and setup outside of wedding day are also available with hourly rates.

Full Wedding Coordinator

Since all weddings are so different, rates for full planning services or destination weddings can be estimated after the initial free consultation.
