- ❖ Alexia K: Debbie made sure I had everything I wanted for my wedding day. She helped negotiate with the MOB and Bride. On my wedding day a dog walked into the chapel without my knowledge and it was kept that way, helping to make sure I had a completely stress free planning experience and wedding day. Thank you Wedding Days Exclusively (Debbie!)
- ❖ Christine T: Debbie was a wonderful Day-Of-Wedding Coordinator for my husband Bob, and me. I particularly loved her sweet, approachable demeanor and willingness to step forward to fill in every detail. I felt as though everything was accounted for. It was a large weight off my shoulders for the "day-of," knowing she was taking care of it all and making sure things moved along as planned. Aided by her previous experience, she provided valuable advice and suggestions, but clearly has a natural talent for coordinating weddings and events. Most of all, even though we hadn't known one another prior, she was so loving and clearly cared deeply for Bob and I and beginning our marriage beautifully. I can't emphasize enough how valuable a Day-Of Coordinator is--especially this wonderful gal! Thank you, Debbie!
- ❖ Name Withheld: She kept the organization and flow going the entire ceremony and leading up to it. Debbie made it so that family and friends were able to relax leading up to the big event. She kept in contact with all the vendors and necessary contacts of the different services that I used for my wedding.
- ❖ I first met Debbie as a student while teaching a college wedding planning certificate program. I've had the pleasure of working with Debbie on my team with a wedding that not only included many moving production elements, but a tender topic with the bride's father passing, 7 weeks before the event. Debbie executed the delegated responsibilities most capably and brings her wonderful personality along to the party. She has my best wishes and recommendation for a bright future with her capable skills in her preferred area of day-of-coordination for her brides. They are in good hands!—Gloria Nelson Concierge LLC

Day-Of Wedding Coordinator

You have worked hard. You have planned and prepared for this life event. Now, it is time for you to enjoy it! That is where Wedding Days Exclusively come in. From creating a wedding timeline to communicating with all of your vendors, my utmost goal is for you to savor each moment of your big day, as you leave the details to me.

As your Day-Of Wedding Coordinator, I will serve as an extension of each bride and groom, to ensure that your Wedding Day is seamless and stress-less. I am committed to professionally executing all the plans that you have put in place for your big day.

—Debbie Esplin

WHY DO I NEED A DAY-OF WEDDING COORDINATOR?

The answer first and foremost is: so that you and your groom can be guests at your wedding, focusing on each other, your family, and your friends. You've tied ribbons, written place cards, and secured a DJ, along with a thousand other details. After all your hard work, do you really want to leave the execution of your details to chance?

In the past, many brides have used family members or friends as their DOC. This often ends with miscommunication, stress, and the bride (or her mother) handling way more than she intended on her own wedding day. You deserve to have a professional DOC coordinating your wedding day. Debbie has over fifteen years of experience and certified studies to ensure that she is operating at the highest professional standard. Services include, but are not limited to:

- ❖ Initial meeting to share our services and decide if we are a good match for each other (no cost)*
- ❖ A Final Planning Session*
- ❖ Creation of a Wedding Timeline*
- ❖ Follow-Up Calls to Vendors*
- ❖ Pre-Ceremony/Ceremony Management*
- ❖ Reception Management*

Our meetings/sessions will be directed towards your vision and dreams for the big day. We will get to know your style and personality. We want to know what allows you to feel at peace and what might cause stress. It's important for us to know you, the bride and her groom, so that we can coordinate behind the scenes to make your wedding vision a reality! This is your show. We are here to make sure it plays out the way you wrote it!
