Meet your Photographer

Hi! My name is Bea,

And I am so happy you are here!

My journey in photography began back in 2014 when I stepped into the enchanting world of capturing memories. My initial foray was editing wedding photos for three different photographers, which laid the foundation for my career.

I thrive in classic, black and white and candid photography. These styles allow me to encapsulate the genuine emotions and timeless beauty of every moment. With a decade of experience as a photographer, I've honed my skills and earned three certificates along the way. Each milestone has added depth and finesse to my art.

Your satisfaction and ease are at the heart of my work. I prioritize creating an experience that's stress-free, ensuring you feel relaxed and comfortable throughout our time together.

I'm here to turn your moments into treasured memories. Email me at contact@beizphotography.com to book out first meeting. Can't wait to get to know you and be your photographer.
