Elolements

What is an elopement wedding? Well it means you and your significant other are tying the knot one of the most important decisions you will ever make! It means you are celebrating with just yourselves, or a small gathering, in a minimal or more casual fashion! This package is unique because it will offer the officiation and also the photography. We pair you with our favorite photographer and also our favorite officiator in the area. They are super affordable for couples on a budget and looking to put their money on a honeymoon or whatever else you might be wanting to invest in. The package with both a photographer and an officiator is $800. The other elopement package we offer with just the officiator is $500.

Micro-Weddings

This is the perfect package for a couple wanting a quiet and intimate wedding only with their closest family and friends. This is for the couples that still want a traditional wedding, but do not want all the stress and anxiety that comes with a large wedding. You want to just enjoy the day surrounded by your loved ones and celebrate the true meaning of why you are getting married. It is specifically designed for a guest list of 50 people or less. This package is made to be very budget friendly. It will include an 10 hour rental fee, from 2:00p.m to 12:00a.m. The total price for this package is $1,000.00.

Old-fashioned Weddings

Wanting the traditional big huge wedding well this package is for you! It is tailored to 200-250 people. The Roundtop has enough seating for 150 people, but there is plenty of room outside for overflow. Plus everyone is attracted to the Grain Bin Bar! If you are wanting the traditional wedding then here it is. The following Prices are as follows:

Saturday/Holidays	$2000
Friday/Sunday	$1500
Monday-Thursday	$1300

All packages include tables and chairs**
