Frequently Asked Questions:

I have no idea how much wedding flowers cost. How do I set a budget?

We recommend looking on various wedding websites like The Knot, Wedding Wire and popular wedding blogs to get an idea for how much you can expect to pay for your wedding flowers. One of our principles is to provide a beautiful product for a fair price.

What should I expect at my consultation and how far out from my wedding date should I schedule it?

We recommend booking your consultation as soon as you have your venue. After your consultation we will send you a detailed quote. We only take a certain number of weddings each day and weekend so the sooner the better! You can reserve your consultation time by sending an email to BouqYard@Gmail.com.

Why does my wedding date affect the price I pay for flowers?

If your wedding falls within the days of a major holiday for the floral industry we will pay a premium for your flowers (i.e. Valentine's Day, Mother's Day). You may also be asking for a flower that is not in season. While most flowers are available year round, a flower that is out of season is more costly. Those factors will be taken into consideration when detailing your proposal and mentioned during your consultation. Once you receive a proposal from us you are guaranteed that price.

Can I bring in some of my own decor? Who sets that up?

This is something we are happy to discuss at your consultation. We can certainly incorporate some of your personal items into the design and include the set-up in our installation fee. Some of your decor items may be set up by your venue or wedding coordinator.
