

What's included

Hourly fees include design services, regular paper, full color printing, basic envelopes, and standard finishing techniques.

A typical invitation suite can cost anywhere from $300 (very basic) to $2,000 (elaborate).

Your budget is not meant to define your event, so Cory makes sure you have options, and as an expert can give tips on how to save more. Let her know what you are looking to accomplish and she will help you reach your dream!

What customers are saying...

Words truly cannot express my satisfaction with everything that Cory did for our wedding. Throughout the whole process she was not only completely professional but also attended to my personal needs and wants. She not only provided our invitations but our programs, seating cards, table cards and menus. This helped bring together our colors and theme even more throughout our wedding! Knowing Cory was handling all these things really help to put my mind at ease during one of the most stressful times in a girl's life. Anyone looking for a knock 'em out of the park designer, with many new, innovative ideas, you have found it in HeartStarDesign.
-Rebecca (Married in April 2012)

Cory did an outstanding job with our wedding invitations, programs, and place cards. We started working together almost a year in advance - she continually checked in throughout the entire process and provided me with plenty of updated proofs along the way. She listened to what I wanted and went above and beyond with my vision!
-Shayla (Married in July 2013)

Professional Design for all occasions

HeartStarDesign by Cory Anne Gagnon

the process

Step 1 ★ Consultation Meeting

A meeting is planned for you to see sample designs, colors, and paper. At this point we determine your style and the designs you would like to see. This first meeting is free to see the samples and there is no charge for design time, however if you choose to go through HeartStarDesign a $75 down payment is requested to begin the process.

Step 2 ★ Proofing Process

Wordings, design, colors, and paper are chosen during this time. Three total drafts are provided, all designs are specifically made for your event, physical proofs are provided for final approval.

Step 3 ★ Production & Delivery

After your approval of this proof the invitations go in to production. Printing, cutting, and assembly of invitations is in process and your final invitations are being prepared to be delivered to you.

Step 4 ★ Extra Add-ons

Other items such as address labels, favors, name tags, table numbers, thank you cards and programs can be created to tie your event together seamlessly.

★ personal attention to detail ★

You want your wedding to stand out from the rest! Cory knows that the right style is your style, and each customer is treated as an individual. Full attention is given so that your personal style shines throughout the design. Everything that is created should be as unique as the individual it is created for.

♥ trust & availability ♥

Friendly, personalized service is what HeartStarDesign is based on. Cory will explain the entire process from beginning to end before you commit yourself to a contract. Trust that you will be involved in every step of the process and you will be informed of progress as it happens. Cory makes herself available to her clients day and night, and stays on top of deadlines so you don't have to!

★ expert craftsmanship ★

Cory is well versed in all of the latest design trends and wedding etiquette. When planning your special event you will see that the options and variations are limitless! Spend your time wisely by selecting an expert like Cory who will lead you through all of the etiquette rules, printing methods, and various style choices that are associated with the big day.

♥ high quality products ♥

All products that HeartStarDesign offers are inspected and hand-picked to ensure only the best materials will go into making your invitations. Each design is a one-of-a-kind creation, built by Cory to be as unique as the person it is designed for.

Cory personally guarantees that all products offered will meet your expectations (and her high expectations as well).

HEARTSTARDESIGN

Find all of our invitation samples and more at HeartStarDesign.com

Check out the Etsy.com Shop:
etsy.com/shop/HeartStarDesign

HEARTSTARDESIGN

wedding invitations & more

from HeartStarDesign LLC
by Cory Anne Gagnon
cag@heartstardesign.com
414-322-0274