The Experience

WEDDING DAY TIMELINE

While most wedding photos look effortless, there is a good bit of time and effort that goes into creating those incredible images. Therefore, creating a wedding photography timeline is an absolute must.

A typical wedding runs around 8 - 10 hours. Here is a breakdown of how your day might look. As the photographer I always arrive 30 min to an hour early for set-up and scouting locations.

- Getting Ready Photos
- First look / Bridal Photos
- Bridal Party Photos
- Ceremony
- Family Photos
- Bride & Groom Photos
- Cocktail Hour
- Reception
- Toasts
- First Dance
- Cake Cutting
- Bouquet Toss / Garter Toss
- Open Dancing
- Couples Exit

BRIDAL / BOUDOIR / ENGAGEMENTS

The best memories are preserved in print. I say this because anyone can snap a candid photo at your wedding and post it. The images that live on forever are the perfectly orchestrated and staged shots that look both effortless and timeless. I offer bridal, boudoir, and engagement shoots to all my couples looking for a little something extra to add to their big day.

For couples booking 8 - 10 hours with two shooters I offer your choice of a bridal, boudoir, or engagement shoot for free. Just as an added perk for upgrading your wedding day.

PAYMENT

Weddings can be expensive. That's why I offer specialized packages to fit any couples budget. Once your personalized package has been selected only 50% down is required to hold the date and time for your big day. Please note that the 50% deposit is non-refundable. I also offer $50 off to any couple paying the entire balance upfront.

FIRST LOOK OPTIONS

We all imagine that perfect moment, when your partner sees you for the first time in your wedding dress. To make this decision easier, we offer three first look options:

The first takes place before the ceremony after the getting ready photos we position the groom outside somewhere private, with his back turned away from you. You approach him and he slowly turns to see you for the first time. It's magical. Also, highly recommended to get the perfect reaction shots and all the jitters out all at once.

The second is called a No Look First Look. Where we position the bride and groom on either side of a door or passageway. You hold hands and say a few words, It's a wonderfully intimate moment, and great opportunity for photos.

The third is traditional, you wait until it's time to walk down the aisle. This of course is more classic, but note if you decide to stick with tradition, and wait until the ceremony to see your partner, you can expect to spend your entire cocktail hour (and possibly more) taking family and group portraits. Be sure to decide which option you'd like before creating your wedding day timeline.

SECOND WEDDING PHOTOGRAPHER

While the main focus on your wedding day will be you and your spouse, you will probably want photos of your wedding party and families, too. I highly stress adding a second photographer so not a moment is missed. My higher level packages include a second shooter, however you can add a second shooter to any package for an additional $250 per hour.

USE OF IMAGES / ONLINE GALLERY

The big question, when do I get my images and how are they delivered?

Wedding albums and photoshoots are delivered in 4-8 weeks time.

Photos will not be released until final payment is made. The edited photos will be uploaded to a Google Drive folder in both High Res for Print & Low Res for Social Media. They will also be displayed in a professional Online Gallery featured on my website. You will receive a print release stating you have limited rights to use and print these images.

I do offer access to all the unedited, untouched RAW images for an additional $500, and Full Rights to those images for an additional $1000.
