Wedding Pricing & Info Guide
2024

Hello & Welcome! I'm Holly and I'm stoked you're here.

Let's be real - in this day in age, there's a ton of wedding photographers you have to choose from. You probably looked at different prices, styles, personalities, and so much more before you could narrow it down. And that's why I'm so grateful that you have even considered me.

Your photos will last a lifetime and I want you to look back on them to be reminded of your day, along with everything that it meant to the two of you. I love building a connection with my clients and capturing one of the most important and memorable times of their lives (from the engagement session to the wedding...oftentimes to their growing family). And, I absolutely LOVE delivering galleries overflowing with emotion, moments, and details from a day that flew by in the wink of an eye. Lastly, it brings me great joy to capture the beauty of life when there are also so many challenges we all face in a lifetime. These are the moments worth celebrating, and the ones we want to remember most!

"Working with Holly is such a joy, if you can book her for your wedding you won't regret it!! She has such an amazing energy, my family continues to compliment her even months later. Her pricing is incredibly fair for her quality of work and turnaround time. You can tell that she absolutely loves what she does and that love comes across in her actions and photos. I'd gladly book her again!"

“Holly is a creative and expert photographer whose warmth and charisma helped my husband and I feel so comfortable on what can be a stressful day. She provided open communication and flexibility throughout the process. I 110% recommend Holly for any of your special events you'd like to celebrate!”

Second Shooter

While I can easily shoot a wedding solo, here's why your wedding may need a second shooter:

Although this one is up to you - I highly recommend a second photographer for weddings over 75-100 people. I believe being in two places at once is the formula to capturing every micro detail, especially since wedding days fly by. With a second shooter, we are able to capture more of the in-between moments, more fine art details, and more variety in general. My skilled + professional second photographers have been in business 5 + years and all of them are amazing!

Absolutely worth it!
Holly was amazing!
I can't recommend her enough.
She was professional yet laid back and fun. In stressful moments she made sure to give me space. But her and second photographer managed to capture moments I wasn't even aware of. I loved both of their styles. It provided me with such a diverse group of pictures, and yet their styles complement each other really well. My advice is to take the leap and do the package that includes her and Lauren for your wedding and other events. You will not be disappointed!

"Holly is a fantastic photographer and an absolute joy to work with and be around. She brings so much integrity into her work and really cares about your experience, making sure she knows what you hope to capture, which is not something every photographer does. You'll immediately feel that you can trust her with the special responsibility of shooting your big day. In addition to providing plentiful photography packages and options, she is professional, prompt, and carries with her a remarkable sense of warmth, playfulness, and confidence—perfect for corralling large families or kids for amazing portraits. Tons of our guests commented on how much they liked her and felt comfortable having their picture taken as a result. From the busy bodies to the quiet sweet moments with my now husband to all the little details, she was there capturing it all. Our photos turned out beautifully, and we will cherish them for the rest of our lives. Thank you so much, Holly!!

FAQs

How do you describe your style?

This question has two answers!

1- My editing is true to life. While I do edit my images, I do my absolute best to keep colors just how they were. They are not "blown out" (sometimes referred to as "Light & Airy") or "Dark and Moody" (when the mood of the image is more dramatic, with more brown or orange tones). If you ordered a blue suit, it will look blue in your images!

2- My shooting style is a mix of candid/photojournalistic and posed. Your wedding is a story, and I shoot it to showcase that! While of course I will guide you to the best light and will always tell you what to do with your hands, I find that the best images and the best expressions are captured when nothing is feeling forced. But don't you worry, I also understand the importance of formal family portraits!

How long have you been a wedding photographer and how many weddings do you shoot a year?

I am going into my 5th year of photographing weddings, and I shoot about 15 a year!

How many images will I get in my gallery?

While it can vary a bit, depending on size of wedding party, family portraits, amount of hours, and any special elements, it's safe to bet on 600 images. That said, if there are more to give, I don't hold back!

How long will it take to get our photos, and how do they arrive?

You will get your images 4 weeks after your wedding date, with sneak peeks one week after your Wedding.

You will get an email with a link to a private online gallery, where you can instantly download the images. You can also share with friends and family!

Most of your images are outdoors, how do you handle low light situations?

Yep, you're right! Since my home base is in Wine Country, a lot of the venues have outdoor ceremony/reception spaces to show off the view!

I have trained extensively to learn how to use flash, so that any indoor/low light situations are not an issue.

Disclaimer- if you are getting married in a church, some have rules about the use of flash during the ceremony. It is important to find out the rules ahead of time.

What's the big deal with "Golden Hour" and why is it so important?

I know, photographers seem a little obsessive over Golden Hour, don't we? lol! I promise it's for good reason! Golden Hour is the hour before the sun sets, and it's the most pleasing light- the photos that give you that gorgeous sun glow, and the most natural, soft skin tones. It's also a great time to step away from all the wedding "chaos" and take a little time together. These are the images you will probably put on your wall at home- you know, the ones that make you go "ahhh"!

I am unsure about having a First Look, what are the benefits?

I know there are a lot of people who want to stick to the tradition of the groom seeing his bride for the first time when she walks down the aisle. And if that is really important to you, we will adjust the timeline to make that happen. Here are the reasons a First Look is nice/helpful-

1- Your anxiety level! Wedding days are full of excitement and a little bit of nerves. Having a First Look gives you a few moments alone to see each other without a bunch of eyes on you at the ceremony. I am there to document the moment, and then I will step away for a few moments to give you true alone time.

2- You can get the formal family photos done ahead of time, so you can enjoy cocktail hour and greet your guests without being pulled away.

3- If your fiancé is a crier, he will probably STILL be emotional as he sees you walk down the aisle!

Side note- I have had brides do a First Look with Dad's and Brothers, too!
