

To Infinity and Beyond$1200

You want your ceremony to be as unique and memorable as you are. You want your ceremony planning to be as smooth and seamless as possible. You want to spend your engagement period focused on your relationship, deepening your communication, learning new relationship skills and setting long term goals for your marriage.

This package has three distinct components. Prior to your wedding you will participate in Marriage Education program through Prepare/Enrich the leader in relationship building and assessment.

You each privately complete a comprehensive online assessment.

You then receive a complete report of the strengths you bring to the marriage and the areas of growth. In 2 one hour sessions we review how to use your strengths and ways to address areas of growth.

You leave with workbooks and suggestions of exercises you can do as a couple.
