BRIDAL MAKEUP

about the artist

My fascination with makeup started at a very early age. As a child, I have a distinct memory of a Halloween when my mother dressed me up as a clown and tried to put mascara on me. Although a bit traumatic (mascara on a two year old?!), still, I was hooked. After receiving my bachelor's degree, I attended Von Lee Academy in Baltimore, MD, where I studied makeup artistry. In 2003, I packed up and moved to Savannah and it's been love ever since.

Over the past 13 years, I have worked for several cosmetics companies, most notably Bobbi Brown, who I credit much of my deeper knowledge of artistry to. I learned that what really separates a good makeup artist from a great one, is the ability to create the illusion of flawless skin and an understanding of all skin tones. And the cherry on top is getting to play with color! After getting a bit burned out from the retail side of the beauty world, I decided to transition into the spa industry and that's where I spent almost 5 years getting the opportunity to work with so many beautiful and inspiring brides. I realized that if I had the chance, my dream would be to go out on my own and have the opportunity to continue that experience on a more personal level.

In the fall of 2012, my husband and I welcomed our sweet baby boy into the world and I decided the timing was finally right, and Lauren Rossi Bridal Makeup was born. There are so many different routes you can take in the makeup industry, but bridal is where I feel most at home, what I get excited and feel truly passionate about. On top of that, I couldn't ask for a better city to call home. Savannah is THE place to get married!

why should you hire a professional makeup artist?

To me, there is no other day in your life where you want to look and feel your best and most beautiful than on your wedding day. But in reality, things can sometimes get stressful. Your makeup shouldn't be one of those things. Makeup is supposed to be fun!

As a professional makeup artist, my main goal is to not only make you look your best, but to also provide a calm, relaxed and fun environment. You can trust me that your skin will look flawless above all. I use high quality products designed especially to last through humidity, sweat and tears. Bridal makeup isn't necessarily about wearing more makeup than you normally would. It's about choosing the right products, formulas and colors that will look best in different settings and lightings, and making your skin look its best in person and in photographs. Sometimes in the excitement of the day, brides tend to overlook their own needs. My job as your makeup artist is to put your needs first and ensure that you are ready with time to spare.
