About our Wedding Services

There are so many variables going on as the night progresses, and that leaves a lot of room for error. When we first meet our clients, we will establish a timeline or 'flow of events' based on our experience and their preference. During the wedding, we will keep these 'formalities' happening on time. We will keep your photographers, videographers, catering company, and even your wedding planner updated as the night unfolds. This way there is no possibility for error, we create a team of vendors that work together flawlessly to bring you the perfect night.

Our DJ's & MC's have worked for years learning all styles of music and perfecting their ability to read a crowd. They can judge the way your guests are responding to music and build a flawless playlist that matches the mood of your wedding perfectly.

When it comes down to it we are not just another DJ company, we are professionals with a passion for music. Our passions drive our success.
