MEET MAGGIE

Based in Southern California, Maggie and her creative team of makeup and hair artists strive to make your wedding day fun, trouble-free, and the most memorable experience of your life. Maggie's unique approach to providing beauty services is based on the fact that you can only truly look your best if your makeup is flawless, your stress level is low, and your heart is full. She truly sees her job as more than just makeup and hair services – creating an atmosphere of happiness for all of her clients.

But this actually comes quite easily for Maggie – it's just her personality. Empathy is her number one strength, so you'll often find Maggie helping to minimize those little distractions that so often come up on a wedding day. She knows from experience that a bride wants to feel in control, but never burdened by the many last minute details that can often disrupt the preparation time, and this is why she only hires fellow artists who exude that same optimistic and helpful attitude.

“My passion is making women feel gorgeous in their own skin. Whether they're taking beauty portraits, modeling for a photo shoot, or marrying their best friend, I want them to feel calm, confident and exceptional. I want to help you be your best self.”

-Maggie Cathey

I don't wear a lot of makeup, so I was nervous about using a professional on my wedding day. I was worried I would look overdone or not done enough, as this had been my experience in the past. I had a lot of doubts running through my head--maybe I just don't look good in makeup, maybe I have unrealistic expectations, maybe I should just forget it and do my makeup myself. Then came Maggie. She came recommended by our photographer, who spoke very highly of her skill and professionalism, but I quickly learned there was much more to her. From the first moment we met she made me feel at ease, listening intently to all my concerns and normalizing my nerves. She listened carefully to my feedback, making sure that I was completely happy with how I looked. BUT, she didn't stop there.

Maggie came to our first look photos, reassuring me all the way and doing touch ups between shots. She stuck around through ALL of the bridal party photos. She used her sense of humor to help me stay relaxed, clearly tuned in to how I was feeling, and even tromped through the brush with us (did I mention she was pregnant through all of this?). There is no question in my mind about Maggie's skill and professionalism. She knows what she's doing. Maggie was easy to contact, listened well, ultimately delivered on the big day, I looked amazing, blah blah blah. A lot of makeup artists can do that. But what sets her apart is on an entirely different level. She has this ease about her. A calm, focused, and--at the risk of sounding too kumbaya--peaceful demeanor that zaps nerves and puts even the most tense bride at ease (that was me). Somehow, she melted into the group of friends and family surrounding me and I didn't even blink.

I couldn't be happier with my decision to hire Maggie for my wedding. I am so grateful for her skill, patience, and humor. If I could recommend her services by shouting from atop a mountain, I totally would. But for now, this will have to do.

When you look at Maggie's work, it really speaks for itself! I wanted a very glamorous look for my wedding, and Maggie more than delivered! Throughout the process of working with her, she was always very kind, enthusiastic, organized and responsive. Most importantly, she presents as very confident in her ability! I really enjoyed my trial with her as she is so easy to talk to and bubbly. On the day of our wedding, she came in with her team and got to work straight away as we had 12 people getting hair and makeup done. Prior to, she had come up with a schedule to ensure things moved efficiently, and that there was more than enough time to have everyone looking their best. She came prepared with a variety of tools and makeup to suit all skin conditions, tones, and types! My bridesmaids, the moms, grandmother, and me walked away extremely happy and feeling gorgeous! Thank you Maggie :)!

Maggie is the best makeup artist ever. I had a horrible experience with my first makeup trial... The makeup made me look like a completely different person (and not in a good way). When I decided not to go with them, it was only two weeks away from my wedding and I was scrambling to find someone else. I was sooooo happy that Maggie was available. She knocked it out of the park in an hour for my trial. She was so pro, and the makeup looked exactly how I wanted. On the day of my wedding she knocked out makeup for four of my bridesmaid including myself with time to spare. Her prices are very reasonable for how amazing she is, which is a bonus! You will be very happy if you hire her. I highly recommend her.
