

OZ FARM WEDDINGS

Jennifer LeRoy's middle name is Oz for a reason. In her grandfather Mervyn's most famous film 'The Wizard of Oz', a tornado transports its young protagonist from a monochromatic existence on a Kansas farm, to a technicolor world of unprecedented fantasy and wonder.

Much like her grandfather's famous heroine, Jennifer Oz LeRoy has emerged and woken up to a world of vibrant possibility. If the Oz in her name represents her gift for imagination, the LeRoy that follows it is the mark of nothing less than a dynasty. As the great granddaughter of Jack Warner (one of the Warner Brothers and the driving force behind the founding of the mythic film studio), granddaughter of legendary Hollywood director and producer Mervyn LeRoy (famous for producing The Wizard of Oz), and daughter of Kay and Warner LeRoy, both business impresarios and chef-restaurateurs (owners and operators of venerable New York City Restaurants Maxwell's Plum, Tavern on the Green, and the Russian Tea Room as well as creator of the Great Adventure Theme Park), Jennifer LeRoy is the heir to a storied family legacy of showmanship, spectacle events, impeccable entertainment, and attentiveness to her clients, which she expresses with her and her team in every wedding and event that is planned and executed.

After her father Warner's death in 2001, Jennifer inherited the keys to Tavern on the Green, a restaurant synonymous with magical private events, the golden age of dining and nightlife of New York City. At the young age of 22, Jennifer had over 1000 employees, 20 million dollars in events a year to oversee, and 500,000 New York City diners a year to serve. But this was nothing new to her. Jenny started working at Tavern when she was 16 years old. Working every position in the kitchen, learning the business from the ground up. Under her stewardship, the iconic restaurant lived out the last decade of its life cycle until 2010.

Over the last few years, Jenny Oz has consulted for many large restaurant and hospitality brands such as Gurney's Montauk and Beautique Hamptons , while also planning weddings and events around the globe. But her heart always lied with weddings and events. In 2015, she decided to combine two of her biggest passions, horses and events, founding Oz Farm and Jenny Oz Events and Showroom in Hudson Valley New York. Jenny Oz has turned an 82 acre working horse farm, into a magical venue for brides to have their wedding day feel like it is somewhere over the rainbow. The Jenny Oz Showroom located in the heart of the quaint Village of Saugerties, offers clients a place to see all the details that go into planning their event.

Jenny Oz and her team also offer off site wedding planning world wide. Teaming up with local venues such at Deer Mountain Inn, Opus 40, and more, Jenny has truly made Hudson Valley a second home and workplace. Oz Farm located in Saugerties NY, offers tented areas overlooking breathtaking mountain views, as well as a once used renovated barn for weddings and events. Oz Farm offers limited to full service wedding planning for brides, grooms, and event clients. Jenny Oz's philosophy on planning is to take as much stress off the bride, groom and families as possible. ' Yes we are planning one special day, but the time leading up to it should be as fun and worry free as possible.' Jenny Oz and her team also have an office and home base in West Palm Beach during the winter months where they have executed many weddings and events in Miami, the Bahamas, Palm Beach and Wellington Florida.

On October 7th- my husband and I had the honor of getting married at Oz Farm. It was the most magical day of our lives!! We worked with Jenny for a little over a year and as a wedding planner- she is fantastic! We didn't have to worry about anything and she made the day of- the greatest experience of our lives. She is absolutely amazing and her talent as a wedding planner really shows in the way she speaks so passionately about the work that she does. Oz Farm is a beautiful place to get married- especially if you want that outdoor/rustic/ vintage feel of a wedding! We were extremely pleased with how the decorations, food, music, cake, and atmosphere of the wedding turned out and this will go down as one of the greatest days of our lives!

My husband and I hired Jenny Oz LeRoy to be our planner leading up to (and day of) our wedding at the Deer Mountain Inn in the Catskills, NY on June 23, 2018. From our first meeting, we knew right away that Jenny was a professional and would help guide us through the stressful and sometimes overwhelming wedding process. Leading up to our big day, Jenny was a tremendous asset by recommending local vendors and answering any and all questions that we had about our big day. Her knowledge of the industry (what's worth the investment vs. what's not) was extremely beneficial to us. Especially planning a wedding in an area where we didn't know everyone (in the wedding industry), Jenny was able to provide valuable recommendations and connect us to her vast network of exceptional wedding vendors. We definitely had great options to choose from! Regarding day of the wedding, Jenny was an absolute dream to work with. Unfortunately, we had thunderstorms the morning of our wedding and Jenny was such a pro dealing with any last minute items that popped up (including the rain) and how to best problem solve. And even with the stress of the weather and the nerves of the day, she helped to guide us through the best day of our lives - a day that we will always look back on and cherish. Every detail, from big to small, Jenny was on top of and managed with ease. She was totally prepared on her end and took so much pressure off our shoulders day of, so my husband and I could truly sit back and enjoy. Whenever we needed her, she was right there, which was exactly what we were hoping for from a wedding planner. Jenny is smart, organized, diligent, patient and extremely supportive. She was so lovely to work with through our entire wedding process and exceeded our expectations. We are so appreciative of all her hard work that went into planning our perfect day and we would highly recommend her to any couple looking for a best-in-class wedding planner.
