WELCOME

Of first importance, congratulations are in order for you both, Beloved. I am humbled that you're here, sharing a few moments with me, to discern if we offer the kind of wedding photography experience you are after.

When you and the love of your life have exchanged vows, laughed and cried the day away with your loved ones, consumed your wonderful meal, and have put your feet up, the only tangible gift you'll have from that day forward will be your photographs. That's where we come in.

We would be so honored to photograph this most important day of your lives. Take your time browsing through this guide then let's chat about all things you, what matters most to you, and how we can preserve this day for the years and decades to come.

Let's make this the start of our beautiful relationship,

morgan

OUR PHILOSOPHY

YOUR WEDDING DAY YOUR MARRIAGE

We pride ourselves on centering you, your love story, and your closest loved ones on your wedding day. Therefore, we will only accept wedding commissions with no more than 200 guests. In our years of expertise, we've come to find that larger weddings have become more about strict timelines, formalities, and entertaining the guests and less about the couple.

We advocate for you and will gently remind you throughout this process that this is your day, however traditional or non-traditional it may be. We are committed to an intimate, fun-loving, stress and care-free time together for this glorious day of yours from start to finish.

A CHAMPION FOR YOUR MARRIAGE

I've been married for 20yrs. this past Sept. I've come to learn that marriage is about the daily choice to commit to one other, in the mountain seasons and especially in the valleys. It's choosing to love, choosing to cherish the other, choosing to remember your why.

The photographs from your wedding day will serve as a portal for when all is well and especially for the tough times to feel again every bit of how your journey toward forever began. My hope is that you'll see, after reliving your day, that tough times are temporal; your love will and can conquer it.

And as this journey begins on the other side of your wedding day, I'm committed to keeping your marriage in prayer. I'm not just your photographer. I'm a trusted friend, honored to support you through it all.

OUR APPROACH

Our team will step into your wedding day under the assumption that you will not remember one bit. That's where we want you to be, abandoned to the time and space that you occupy without worry. It's our goal to make you belly laugh again, cry again, and have an unrelenting desire to go back to it. We have you and your prized memories to be made that day, completely covered.

YOUR BOUTIQUE EXPERIENCE

A LIMITED CLIENTELE

We accept no more than 27 wedding commissions each year to ensure that we provide each one of our marvelous couples the undivided attention and personal touch they deserve.

ACCESSIBILITY

Communication is at the core of establishing trust in a relationship. We are intentional in keeping the lines of communication fluid. Via phone, text, or email, you are welcomed to contact us anytime. Outside of photographing a wedding and spending time with our families, we are dedicated to providing you with timely responses.

THE WORLD; OUR PLAYGROUND

Let's throw away what's traditional and venture to the places that sets your hearts on fire. For your engagement session or your wedding day, our options are truly limitless. The stamps in our passports, the redeye flights, and countless miles traveled by car in the US are a testament of our love for travel and adventure. We're ready to do just that with you.

ONE WEDDING PER WEEKEND

Because we travel often to photograph weddings, and to only show up on your day rested and ready to serve you, we limit our calendar to one wedding per weekend.
