WHAT TO expect

I am here to help you plan and coordinate the photo related details for your engagement session and for the big day. But, to be honest - I'm more than your wedding day photographer - I am your consultant, advocate, and friend!

Before the wedding we will go over key events you would like captured and make a timeline that best fits your day and vision!

Once the special moment arrives, I am by your side to make sure the day goes smoothly. Get ready to laugh, smile, and cry with the people that mean the most to you!
