

Welcome!

My name is Emily, and documenting love stories is one of my most favorite things. Jesus, family, horses, cold weather, peanut butter and all things cozy are just a few things I love about this life.

Each and every love story is unique. Documenting any and all love over the last decade has been life changing! I love becoming friends with couples as we spend time creating memories.

I hope we have the chance to get coffee and talk about all of your wedding day dreams very soon!
